PREFACE

This genealogy is presented in dictionary style, that is, in alphabetical rather than chronological order & is a newly revised & expanded edition. Many more generations are now included, & many new lines have been added since the 1974 publication. The title itself reflects the changes & now reads "The Gurney Family from Aaron to Zuinglius, A Genealogical Dictionary".

This book consists of many known descendants of Richard Gurney-2 who settled in Weymouth MA before 1656, & he was undoubtedly there well before that date. It is almost certain that he was the son of John Gurney-1 of Weymouth & Braintree MA, but there is room for more positive evidence.

A male is presented in alphabetical order, but if there is limited information, he may be listed in his father's family. The numbers following a name are generation numbers showing the line of descent from Richard Gurney-2. Care must be taken when looking for a prior or succeeding generation to be sure that you have the correct mother & father, husband & wife since there may be several by the name of John or Samuel in the same generation. A child about whom there is further information & later appears as an adult head of a family is marked with a plus (+).

The information is briefly documented wherever possible & this is found within parentheses in the text. In spite of interupting the flow of text, I felt it was wise to include, to clarify & sometimes correct, published histories & to direct the reader to the source of information.

At times, I have offerred an "educated guess" as to a person's likely place in the family, & it is so noted by "possibly" or "probably". By all rights, he should be omitted as unproved, but once discovered, it is difficult to let him slide back into obscurity. Hopefully it will provide a clue for further research.

The reader should be aware of OTHER Gurney families, who sometimes lived in the same vicinity & were early settlers in America. The large family of Gurnee or Gurnea found early in Rockland Co. NY & Bergen Co. NJ often spelled the name Gurney. They were descendants of Isaac Garnier from Ile de Re, France to NY City before 1692 & have been the subject of a genealogy by Francis Winborn Gurney of Violet LA in 1980. Working together, we were able to sort & separate one family from another.

We see other Gurneys born Ireland, Scotland, England, & Canada named in the 1850 census returns of Maine, New Jersey, Michigan, & Massachusetts; 1860 Illinois families of Gurney born in England and Ireland; Civil War soldiers in Iowa named Gurney born in Saxony; Gurneys born in France & counted in the 1870 Ohio census. Poor spellings like Gurner, Gurnley, Gurley, Gurrey, Guerney, Gurnie, Gurnsey, Gurnon, Gurnfey, Guring on census lists & vital records have often turned out to be a GURNEY! And sometimes, the listing was indeed correct with a name of Gurnsey or Gurley.

My greatest hope is that with this publication, the records & history of this Gurney family will be preserved in a readily available form & serve as a stimulus for additional research. If all Gurneys who were approached, had responded, this volume would have been doubled in size!

This writer is deeply indebted to Bob D. Gurney-12 of Ft. Worth TX for his enthusiasm & masterful creation of the index, to Helen (Gurney) Thomas-11 of Freetown MA, Bowman Sturtevant of Yarmouth ME, Carolyn J. (Cobb) Warren & her mother-in-law Grace (Gurney) Warren-11 of Morrill ME for their most generous gift of research time. To the countless other Gurneys who contributed their family records, the vital records of their area, published articles, bits & pieces of information, I am most grateful.

IMMIGRANT ANCESTOR--JOHN GURNEY-1

Early records concerning the first Gurney immigrant to America are exceedingly obscure & offer conflicting information. Sheer lack of records, & the presence of two John Gurneys add to the confusion in determining our immigrant ancestor.

John Gurney, the apprentice of John Newgate, was from Bury St. Edmunds, Co. Suffolk, England. In 1636, he was brought before the Constable of the Court of Charlestown MA because he had "gotten away his indentures & was ordered to serve till he were 24 yrs. of age, viz. for 3 yrs., from the 29th of Sept. next". (Banks-151, Savage II:325, Winthrop-II 345) Thus he would have been born about 29 Sept. 1615 & highly unlikely the father of Richard-2 who was born about 1630. Savage & Banks place him in Braintree MA. Nothing more is known about this John Gurney.

Of the other John Gurney, who by his disposition was aged about 50 yrs. in 1653, there is no positive proof that he was the father of Richard-2, yet his presence in Weymouth and Braintree MA, & his more likely age, (b.c. 1603) indicate the probability that he was the immigrant ancestor. He is recorded as John Gurney-1 in this book. A record of his arrival in America has not been found.

Perhaps future researchers of the Gurney family will be able to locate positive proof & be able to document & justify the existance of just one man by the name of John. I think it most likely through errors in transcribing dates, that the several records refer to one man. However, with the information available & without more proof, those critical 12 years require one to accept the evidence that there were 2 men named John Gurney. Therefore Richard Gurney-2 becomes our first KNOWN ancestor about whom there is proven & documented information, but with some evidence that the was the son of John Gurney-1.

There was an Edward Gurney, to Cambridge MA about 1636 from Bardwell, Co. Suffolk, England, but little more can be found about him. (Banks; Savage II:325)

A thorough search of likely English records, including church records, reveals many named John Gurney. However, there is no evidence, not even a clue which would tie those records in England to our John or Richard Gurney in America...no wills, no emigration records, no passenger lists, nothing. Many attempts have been made by both family genealogists & professional genealogists in England to uncover the records & determine the immigrant ancestor, but to no avail.

We know that there has been NO proven connection made between ANY of the English Gurneys mentioned in "The Record of the House of Gournay", by Daniel Gurney, Esq., 1858, to any Gurney in America. The 4 volumes & 1 supplement have been declared a hoax & do present a glorious Gurney history, a profusion of coats of arms, & impressive, but unproven lineages. Of "The Gurneys of Earlham" by Augustus J.C. Hare, 1895, our family was established in America long before those mentioned in the 2 volumes arrived from England...& the Earlham Gurneys returned to England.

His eldest son John went from Cummington MA to Licking Co. OH in 1833 & located on Raccoon Creek in St. Albans Twp. about 1 mile east of Alexandria. Asa and the rest of the family followed a year or so later in about 1835 as well as Lucy's brother Oren Bryant. From 1830 to 1836 Deacon Oren Barnes was a promoter of the "Bible Society of St. Albans Twp.", the purpose of which was to see that every family in the community was properly supplied with Bibles & Testaments, so the society conducted a survey & reported that of 233 families in 1836, only 18 families lacked the Holy Writ. Asa Gurney was one of those who made the house to house canvass by school districts. The Granville & St. Albans Baptist Church was composed of members from both townships, a separate meeting house was built in 1834 but soon needed repairs in 1838. A subscription paper to raise money for the repairs netted less than $ 100 so Asa Gurney & Oren Bryant took the matter in hand & in 2 days secured pledges for $ 1400, enough to build a new & much better structure & the old building was abandoned. Asa served on the new building committee. (Alexandria & St. Albans Township, Licking Co. OH, by Alexandria Community Council, 1952, p. 53, 109)

Asa was listed as head of the household in 1850 census of St. Albans Twp. & living with him was his son John & his family. He was listed a second time in the household of another son F.N. (Francis) Gurney of the adjacent twp. of Granville, perhaps while there on a short visit. (Denison University Archives)

(NEHGR 59:155, 116:20, 121:244) He moved from Weymouth to South Abington as early as 1707 & probably lived with his cousin, Samuel Gurney-3 who had married his wife's widowed mother. His name was listed on Axtell's accounts, list of hides, Feb. 1709 & 1710. He returned to Weymouth in 1710, but went back to Abington & on 8 Sept. 1726 purchased the Richard Williams farm on the Abington-Bridgewater line. (Plym. Deeds 25:79) This he bought from Samuel Staples of Scituate, step-son of Richard Williams & Sarah (Atkins) (Staples) (Gurney) Williams.

Cyrus Nash wrote (D-VII:15) about "Benjamin not coming home at the right time. His wife Rebecca set out to look for him & found him lying asleep in a field. It made her so sore that she took the pipe out of her mouth & set fire to the grass around him to give him a good scare. She succeeded & also succeeded in causing one of the biggest fires of the time, burning over many acres of low ground, which thereafter was known as Granny Gurney's Swamp".

Benjamin sold his farm to Abraham Pierce on 20 Oct. 1730 & moved his family to Middleboro, MA (Plym. Reg. 31:69, 70) Jointly with his son Benjamin, he bought land from Samuel Tinkham of Middleboro on 28 Oct. 1730 consisting of 3 lots of upland & 1 lot of meadow containing about 2 acres. (Plym. Reg. 39:79) His son later sold this on 3 May 1749 after his father's death.

He died in Middleboro, MA, his will dated 4 May 1738, proved 1739 "to my wife, Rebeckah Gurney, one half of my homestead that is in partnership between myself & my son

He became enamoured of Jane (Jean) Harden & apparently fathered her son, Benjamin who was bpt. 30 May 1730 in Abington. Jane was b. 19 Nov. 1709 in Abington, d/o of Cap't. John & Mary (Littlefield) Harden (Abington VR), bpt. 1711 in Braintree. Her baptism is interesting in local records because it was the earliest known proof that the "Little Comfort Mill" was used as a landmard to describe that area of Abington which now comprises Whitman. John Gurney-3 (Richard-2) had started the Little Comfort mill. Her parents took her back to their home town of Braintree to be baptized in 1711 because there was no church until the following year, 1712, when Abington was incorporated. Rev. Samuel Niles identified John Harden in the records as "of Little Comfort". Jane Harden m. 29 Dec. 1731, Ebenezer Spear.

(Plym. Reg. 39:79) He also bought 8 acres of Middleboro land from Sam Eddy, Jr. on 7 Nov. 1731 & was a subscriber to the church in what is now Carver, MA.

He moved to Rochester MA where he died before 13 Dec. 1771, when his son Lemuel mortgaged "a certain tract in Rochester in the easternmost part of said town, it being the estate of my father, Benjamin Gurney, late of Rochester." (Plym. Reg. 57:47) Lemuel, Benjamin, & Levi Gurney, all of Rochester MA agreed 1 Jan. 1800, to divide up the homestead farm which they owned in common, it being the estate of their father, Benjamin Gurney, late of Rochester deceased. He began his business career as a manufacturer of wooden pulleys at Roan Mountain TN in partnership with his brothers Frank & James. In 1901 the Gurney Manufacturing Co. moved to Chattanooga TN where they produced large wooden bowls for bakeries. Fred had invented a cutter which would cut a nest of bowls from a large block of wood--three men could sit in 1 bowl. The business was located at various times in Elizabethton TN, Walhalla SC & Mississippi, the company moved as the supply of large trees gave out. His brothers continued the bowl & pulley manufacture & he moved to Jamestown NY where he began to invent & manufacture various types of ball bearings.

In 1903 he founded the Gurney Ball Bearing Co. in Jamestown NY. His first plant was on the 6th floor of the old Gokey Building. After a big fire sent all the heavy machines crashing to the ground floor, enterprising youngsters collected the steel balls for marbles & had "steelies" for years later. He was responsible for several important developments in the field including in 1908 the radial-thrust ball bearing capable of taking combined radial & thrust loads, & in 1910 the pre-loaded ball bearing which became universally used in machine tool spindles.

In 1924 the Gurney Ball Bearing Co. merged with Standard Steel & Bearings, Inc., a division of Marlin Rockwell Corp. & he became the chief engineer. He was named chairman of the Board of Directors in 1926 & continued in that position until his retirement in 1935. He was honored in 1940 with the Modern Pioneer Award given by the National Ass'n. of Manufacturers & was chairman of several National Engineering societies.

JACOB GURNEY-6 (John-5,4,3, Richard-2) was b.c. 1778 in the "Oblong", Dutchess Co. NY, s/o John & Judith (Hoag) Gurney. He m. 28 Jan. 1802, Hannah Nelson, b.c. 1773, Westchester NY & moved with his father, some brothers & sisters and other Quaker Friends to New Baltimore, now Greene Co. NY. The first few families of Friends who took up land out of the ninth allotment of Coeymans Patent included the Powells, Bedells, Gurneys, Nelsons, & Hoags. Jacob & Hannah lived in New Baltimore from about 1809 until their deaths.

They were Quakers & attended Coeymans Meeting at Stanton Hill, New Baltimore where Jacob played a key role in the Friends meeting. He served frequently as treasurer of the Friends from 1828 to 1837 & was an Elder. He & his brother Benjamin were appointed to have "oversight of schools & teachers" & in 1829 a deed was taken for the Friends Burying Ground on the premises of Jacob Gurney & Solomon Carman (today's Stanton Hill Cemetery). He was also appointed to have the "oversight of the burying grounds belonging to this meeting & to attend the burials of such as are interred there." The Greene Co. Friends were visited frequently by Elias Hicks, famous Quaker exhorter & traveling preacher. The Coeymans Meeting thrived until about 1850 when Quakerism in New Baltimore experienced a rapid decline, probably because Quakerism was not nurtured among the children. ("Under the Care of Friends", New Baltimore's 18th & 19th Century Quaker Meetings, by Frances K.

Dietz, town historian, published June 1984 by the Heritage Society of the town of New Baltimore NY, p. 1-16)

Jacob & Hannah lived in New Baltimore where they were listed in the 1850 Federal census, ages 72 & 77, adjacent to Joseph & Margaret Thorn, and his brother, Joseph Gurney. Jacob died 11 Mar. 1855 age 77-9-1, bur. Quaker Cem., Stanton Hill.

Jacob wrote his will on 11 May 1846, witnessed by Benjamin L. Powell, Jerusha F. Powell, & Lydia Ann Davis, all of New Baltimore & his brother Joseph Gurney & friend Joseph Thorn, executors. He bequeathed first to his wife Hannah & after her death, a farm to his sister Eunice Wilson & after her death to her son, Jacob Wilson. After the death of his wife Hannah, the farm on which they lived to Elizabeth Bronk, wife of Joseph Bronk & the same property after Elizabeth's death, to her son, Jacob Bronk. To his brother Joseph Gurney, $1,000 to be paid after the death of testator's wife, Hannah. To Joseph Thorn, $ 1,000 to be paid the same. To Barquilla Nelson, the use of $ 1,000 during her natural life. The remainder of property, real & personal, to testator's brothers & sisters (not named), including Joseph Thorn. Will proved Surrogate's Court, Greene Co. NY on 24 Sept. 1855 at which time proofs sworn by the Powells & Lydia Ann Powell disposed of her knowledge & acquaintance with the testator, & that she had married since his death & that her name was Lydia Ann Davis.

Hannah alone was listed in the NY state Census of 1855 as a widow age 82, who had lived in New Baltimore for the past 46 years. She d. 3 Jan. 1856, age 82-7-22 New Baltimore, Greene Co. NY, & was bur. Quaker Cem., Stanton Hill, the ground previously deeded to the Friends by her husband. (Cem. Book # 13, Durham Museum Lib.) No children.

Perhaps the most valuable document in identifying relationships among the family members was the "Press notice to the widow, heirs at law, & next of kin of Jacob Gurney, deceased". All names were cited to appear before the Surrogate in the town of Catskill, Greene Co. NY on 9 July 1855 to have the will proved. Jacob left property to his brothers & sisters (not named) in his will of 1846, but by 1855, several of his brothers & sisters had died, so their children.were named in the 1855 probate.

JOHN GURNEY-1 was b.c. 1603, probably in England, for according to his disposition made in 1653, he was "aged 50 years, or there abouts". (NEHGR 62:94) He was a tailor. He first married in England & his wife, whose name is unknown (but perhaps Mary), d. 20 Sept. 1661 Braintree, Norfolk Co. MA. He married 2. 12 Nov. 1661 Braintree, Widow Grizzell (Fletcher) Kibbee, successively the widow of Thomas Jewell, Henry Griggs, and Henry Kibbee. He had no children by his second marriage to Grizzell. After Gurney's death she married her fifth husband on 3 July 1667, John Burge/Burgess of Weymouth & later of Chelmsford & Dorchester MA. (Chelmsford VR) She d. 9 July 1669 Chelmsford.

There is no record of his arrival in America, nor of his departure from England. John lived first at Weymouth, Norfolk Co. MA. On 2 June 1641 the fine of John Porter, James Ludden, & John Gurney which they forfeited for want of gun powder was remitted by the General Court. Ludden & Gurney were of Weymouth, Porter of Hingham MA. (Porter Genealogy; Anna Gurney Papers at NEHGS) Gurney owned land in Weymouth before 1642-1644 as lands were granted to him "in the East field", "in the mill field", & on the "east side of Great Pond". A list of land or land owners compiled between 26 Oct. 1642 & 21 May 1644 noted land of Robert Randoll first granted to John Gurney, land of Nathaniel Addames first given to John Gurney, & land of Thomas Richards first given to John Gurney. (Hist. of Weymouth)

He moved from Weymouth to Braintree before 1645 & probably lived there until his death. On 25 Mar. 1653 the inventory of the estate of Cap't. William Tyng noted that there were 48 acres of land at Braintree and marsh in the possession of John Gurney. (NEHGR 3O:432) On 2 June 1659 he witnessed the will of Gregory Baxter of Braintree, the inventory taken 5 July 1659 by Gurney and Moses Paine. (NEHGR 9:136) He sold land in Braintree on 12 Feb. 1661, the deed witnessed by his son, John Gurney, Jr.

John Gurney d.c. 1662/3 Braintree MA & the inventory of his estate was taken 16 Mar. 1663 by Gregory Belcher, Edmund Quincy, Thomas Faxon-- amount £ 55.14.6. (NEHGR 12:53)

Probable children: (Hist. of Weymouth III:251)

Mary, b.c. 1628 England, d. 1658/9, m. 1646 Braintree MA, Daniel Shed who called John Gurney "father". (Suff. Prob. 5:278) Daniel Shed was b. 25 June 1620 Fitchingfield, Co. Essex, England, d. 27 July 1708 Billerica, Middlesex Co. MA. They had children: Mary Shed, b. 1647, m. John Rogers; Daniel Shed, b. 1649, m. Ruth Moore; Hannah Shed, b. 1651, m. Thomas Rogers; John Shed, b. 1654, m. Sarah Chamberlain; Elizabeth Shed, (twin) b. 1656, m. Samuel Farley; Zachariah Shed, (twin) b. 1656. (Daniel Shed Genealogy, Frank E. Shedd, 1921, pg. 45, 46; Braintree VR)

+ Richard, b.c. 1630 England, m. Rebecca Taylor.

+ John, b.c. 1633, m. Ruth Ratchelle.

perhaps Peter, b. about 1635.

perhaps Isaac, b. about 1640, was called a neer-do-well who was likely to become a public charge in Scituate MA, was complained of by townsmen of Scituate for pilfering & disorderly living. He was sentenced by the Court to be whipped, which was inflicted & an order of the Court was directed to the Townsmen of Scituate. The Court order said that Isaac did not properly belong any other place, & the Court was sending him back to Scituate, that he be provided for, that he be made to work for a living, & charges for his imprisonment be repaid by the townsmen. Thus was justice satisfied. (The Early Planters of Scituate, Harvey H. Pratt, 1929, p. 118, 119)

JOHN GURNEY-2 (John-1) was b.c. 1633, probably s/o John Gurney-1 & brother of Richard Gurney-2, was of Weymouth & Mendon MA. He m. Ruth Ratchelle of Boston and settled in Mendon. "Paine and Bracket of Braintree for £ 24 purchased of the Indians in 1660 a tract 8 miles square about 15 mi. from Meadfield. They & other associates subsequently petitioned for the incorporation of Mendon and on 5 May 1662, John Gurney from Braintree was among those who were accepted to allotments of land to be settled there before the end of the seventh month, 1663" (NEHGR 9:51, 21:380)

"The town of Mendon incorporated 15 May 1667, at a town meeting held 10 Sept. 1667.... then ordered to build a minister's house for the first that shall be settled here." On 5 June 1669 the selectmen met and ordered that the cellar under the minister's house "be forthwith digged and that Goodman Steven Cook, John Gurney, and John More, with Joseph Juell do it; and two work at a time until it be finished and that Gregory Cooke and Peter Alderidge do carry stones to the cellar which are digged." (NEHGR 29:182)

Four or five persons were slain by the Indians in Mendon on July 1675 & he was undoubtedly one of them. Inventory of his estate on 19 July 1675 listed house, land, corn, £ 40 to widow Ruth and children in Mendon. The town was burned in the winter of 1675 by Indians and widow Gurney fled to Braintree and Weymouth. She m. 2. on 9 Jan. 1676 in Taunton, John Bundy and had children: John Bundy, b. 6 Oct. 1677; Joseph Bundy, b. 1 Jan. 1679; & Edward Bundy, b. 13 Aug. 1681. (NEHGR 16:324) John Bundy d. 1681 and Ruth m. 3. Guido Bailey.

Suffolk Co. Deed (23:168) dated 12 Sept. 1693.... John, Samuel, & Mary Gurney, all of Bridgewater with the consent of their mother Ruth Bailey, sold land in Mendon to Ephraim Thayer of Braintree. There is a marker in Founder's Park Mendon MA, which honors the memory of the founders of Mendon. John Gurney's name is among those listed.

Children: b. Mendon MA

John, b.c. 1669 married as her second husband, Sarah (Thornton) Field, d/o John & Sarah Thornton and widow of Zachariah Field. She had son, Zachariah Field b. 30 Jan. 1685, but no children by John Gurney. He was a husbandman (farmer). In 1693 he bought of John Porter 50 acres of upland on the easterly side of South Brook in Bridgewater MA near Guido Bailey's and also 3 lots of meadow at Great Meadow. In 1699 he sold the same to John Field and was "of Providence in the Colonie of Rhode Island, Providence Plantation." He purchased of the same John Field for £ 20 on 28 Dec. 1696, 60 acres of land one mile east of Maswansacut Pond RI; 5 acres of adjoining meadow and 1/2 purchase of Common. On 14 Nov. 1704 he sold this land to Resolved

Waterman for £ 28 and on 30 May 1722 sold his land rights on the east side of Seven Mile line to John House. (Providence Deeds 14-1:292; 20-2:35; 6:46) Sarah d. 16 Apr. 1714 (Providence VR) and he d. 1723, probably in Providence RI.

Samuel, b. 14 Mar. 1671 (Mendon VR) m. 26 Oct. 1693 Boston MA, Sarah (Atkins) Staples, b.c. 1651, d/o Thomas & Elizabeth Atkins and widow of John-2 Staples. (NEHGR 116:19; 121:243, 244) The marriage record reads "Samuel Gurney and Sarah Shapely by Penn Townsend". (Boston Comm. Report 9:210) He was about 20 years younger than his wife & only a year older than her eldest child by her first marriage.

He apparently lived with his cousin the miller John Gurney-3 (Richard-2) on the 5 acre houselot near the "Little Comfort" mill in 1694. Hobart's "History of Abington" noted that he had been warned out of Bridgewater in 1694 but he was a bondsman in Braintree in that same year so must have been a property owner. Such a warning in those days signified that the young men to whom they were given had not as yet acquired farms or other visible property. Samuel Gurney of Braintree, 1694, Bondsman for the estate of John Staples; Sarah, widow, administrator.

He probably stayed in Bridgewater because on 14 Apr. 1707 he purchased 10 acres of land from Cap't. William Hersey for £ 4.10. (Plym. Deed 13:93) This was on the west side of Country Road near the East Bridgewater line, now South Washington St., Whitman MA. Samuel and his wife, Sarah conveyed to her son, Benjamin Staples, 25 acres of land in Braintree which belonged to his father, John Staples, dated 9 Mar. 1709. (Suffolk Co. Deed 26:211)

Samuel's will, probated 12 July 1717, gave wife Sarah his house & lands in Abington, she to pay to his brother John Gurney, 5 shillings & son-in-law (sic) Samuel Staples (his step-son) 10 shillings. Witnessed by Samuel Browne, John Harden, Stephen Hersey. Widow Sarah & her son, Samuel Staples, Executors (Plym. Prob. 4:36) After the death of Samuel Gurney, Sarah m. 4 Feb. 1719/20 Richard Williams. (Abington VR) She d. about 10 Sept. 1724. No children.

Mary, b.c. 1673, m. 1. Samuel Randall, 2. 16 Apr. 1701 Bridgewater MA, Isaac Leonard, Jr. & lived in "North Purchase" Taunton by 1713, in Norton "East Princt" by 1722/3, & Easton before selling their home lot & dwelling in 1725/6. They moved to Pomphret CT & were settled there by 1731. They had probable children: Isaac Leonard; David Leonard; & Thomas Leonard. (Mayfl. Fam. 2:58)

JOHN GURNEY-3 (Richard-2) of Little Comfort, MA was b.c. 1654 in Weymouth MA, s/o Richard & Rebecca (Taylor) Gurney. He m. Elizabeth Green, b. 5 Oct. 1664 Weymouth, d/o Joseph & Elizabeth (Whitman) Green. Joseph Green's will of 8 Sept. 1691 mentioned "my daughter, Elizabeth Gurney".

In the summer of 1693 a crude saw mill was erected on the Schumatuscacant River in the East end of what is now Whitman MA. John Gurney's father-in-law, Joseph Green, apparently sent him there to run the saw mill which Green & John Porter, both of Weymouth, had jointly built as a means of opening up the territory & enhancing the value of the lands which they owned there. It was an early land-promotion scheme & the builders, who owned large parcels of land, hoped to attract some settlers. This area was technically in the N.E. corner of the original twp. of Old Bridgewater, which later became South Abington, & is now Whitman. The mill & the community which developed around it was called "Little Comfort".

In Jan. 1695 he purchased from Green, about 95 acres, or at least swapped Weymouth land for this. (Plym. Co. Deed 14:154) It included a 5 acre house lot across from the mill; an 80 acre parcel including some good farmland in the vicinity of the present Plymouth & Pleasant streets in Whitman; & 10 acres of swamp land surrounding the Schumastuscacant River, called Bear Meadow.

He probably left Little Comfort & returned to Weymouth. He took to the sea & in 1702 was listed as the Captain of the 40 ton brigantine, "John", a coastal boat registered out of Boston. (Briggs' Shipbuilding on the North River) Neither he nor the ship was heard from again & it is presumed they were lost at sea. John's widow Elizabeth m. 2. 16 Oct. 1706 (Taunton VR), Timothy Cooper, widower of Easton MA, who's first wife had been her cousin, Elizabeth Whitman.

After Gurney's death, his 5 children inherited his estate which they later sold to their cousins Joseph, Zachariah, & Nathan, children of Zachariah-3 Gurney. The estate was divided into 6 parts, his oldest son Richard received a double share which was usual in those days. Richard sold his 2/6 part to Joseph-4 on 23 May 1719; daughters Elizabeth & Mary & their husbands sold their 2/6 part to Zachariah-4 on 2 Feb. 1720/1; David sold his 1/6 part to Nathan-4 on 14 Feb. 1727. (Plym. Co. Deed 14:215; 27:85; 37:85) John probably sold his 1/6 part to Nathan-4, or at least to Zachariah or Joseph, for the three brothers divided up the property among themselves & settled on the land. It was because of some confused wording regarding the division of the estate which probably led to the mis-information in Hobart's "History of Abington". It is now well documented that the first Gurneys in Old Abington stem from Joseph, Zachariah & Nathan rather than from John-3 Gurney, the miller of Little Comfort, Old Abington MA.

Children:

Elizabeth, b. 5 May 1689 Weymouth VR, m. Ephraim Randall of Easton MA & lived there.

Mary, b. probably Little Comfort, m. Daniel Owen of Easton & lived there.

JOHN GURNEY-4 (John-3, Richard-2) was b. May 1699 Weymouth MA, s/o John & Elizabeth (Green) Gurney (Weymouth VR). After his father was lost at sea, his mother m. Timothy Cooper in 1706 & moved to Easton MA. He remained in Weymouth & was raised by his mother's great aunt who was childless, Mrs. Mary (Whitman) Pratt, wife of John Pratt. (Pratt Gen., E. G. Pratt, 1889) Cyrus Nash reported that he left on horseback for CT "went to the Westward" about 1724/5. He settled in Hartford CT & there m. 2 Oct. 1728, Sarah Hubbard, b. 10 Nov. 1696, Hartford, d/o Samuel & Sarah (Kirby) Hubbard. (Manwaring's Digest 3:7) John Gurney, his wife & children were named in the will of Samuel Hubbard, proved 19 Dec. 1731.

John Gurney's will was dated 4 June 1762 Hartford, & named Elizabeth, 2nd daughter 2/6 of his estate; third & youngest daughter Lydia, widow of John Center; daughter Sarah, wife of Silas Andrews; sons John & Bezaleel 1/6 of the estate each, witnessed by Stephen Turner, Isaac Andrews, & Mary Clapp. (Stile's "Windsor") He was bur. 22 Feb. 1777 age 78 in Center

Church Burying Ground, Hartford. In 1779 his sons John of Charlotte Precinct, Dutchess Co. NY & Bezaleel of Kent CT, sold to David Dudley of Windsor CT for £ 39.03.04 "one equal undivided 1/3 part of all the farm which the late John Gurney used to own." (Hartford Deeds 14:185)

JOHN GURNEY-5 (John-4,3, Richard-2) was b. 13 Jan. 1732 Hartford CT, s/o John & Sarah (Hubbard) Gurney. (NEHGR 13:145) He moved from Hartford to the "Oblong", Dutchess Co. NY & there m. (21 Apr. Oblong MM) or 21 June 1762 in Friend's Meeting House, Quaker Hill, (about 5 mi. East of Pawling) Judith Hoag, b. 24 Mar. 1743 Amesbury MA, d/o Benjamin & Lydia (Jones) Hoag. (Old NW Quarterly 3:80, 3:121)

He became a Quaker, as was his wife, & lived in Charlotte Precinct, now Stanfordville, Dutchess Co. NY. The "Oblong" was a narrow strip of land just west of the border of CT & extended about 60 mi. from the southern border of MA down to Long Island Sound. It was originally part of CT & was ceeded to NY in 1731 & was about a mile wide. NY split the Oblong in center & divided the tract into sections of about 500 acres each. (NYGBR 53:52)

He was listed in 1790 census Coxsackie Town, Albany Co. 2-2-3 & was living there in 1798 at the time of his son Benjamin's wedding. It was on the west bank of the Hudson River in the now Green Co. NY. He had probably moved with his Quaker friends & adult children & their families to Coeymans Patent which became New Baltimore in 1800 when Green Co. was set off from parts of Albany & Ulster Co. The first few families of Friends in New Baltimore who took up land out of the ninth allotment of Coeymans Patent included the Powells, Hoags, Bedells, Gurneys, & Nelsons. ("Under the Care of Friends", New Baltimore's 18th & 19th Century Quaker Meetings, by Frances K. Dietz, town historian, published June 1984 by the Heritage Society of the town of New Baltimore, NY, p. 1-16) John belonged to Coeymans Meeting, died 20 Mar. 1824, & was bur. JONATHAN REED GURNEY-7 (Noah-6,5, Nathan-4, Zachariah-3, Richard-2) was b. 15 Dec. 1792 Abington, Plymouth Co. MA, s/o Noah & Molly "Polly" (Reed) Gurney. (Abington VR) He m. (int. 24 Aug.) 12 Sept. 1816, his cousin Deborah Reed, b. 1795 East Bridgewater MA, d/o Jonathan & Deborah (Porter) Reed. (Bridgewater VR)

At age 21 he went to live with his uncle Reed in East Bridgewater & became a blacksmith. Although his family were Congregationalists, he became an ardent Baptist. In a pond near Hobart's tack factory, he & his wife were the first to be baptized in South Abington (now Whitman) on 7 Apr. 1822 by Rev. Thomas Conant. A Baptist Church was organized on 27 Oct. 1822 & they were among the 11 charter members. This later became known as the First Baptist Church, Whitman. He served as Deacon, established a Sunday School, & became the first Sunday School Superintendent. Shortly after 1853 he went to assist the church in Hanson MA which was having difficulties, became Deacon & Sunday School Superintendent there, & moved his family to Hanson where he was listed in the MA census of 1865 as a grain peddler. He later moved to Hanover MA to start prayer meetings until the arrival of a preacher. Growing old, he moved back to South Abington, bought a house lot, built a home in 1872, & rejoined the church he helped to form 50 yrs. before.

It was said that in the early days the Indians would come to his house wanting food. His wife would make a big kettle of hominy for them. One squaw stuffed herself till she got a belly-ache, so they rolled her around the kitchen floor to offer relief.

He d. 16 June 1875 age 83, South Abington & was buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Whitman. JOSEPH GURNEY-4 (Zachariah-3, Richard-2) was b. 7 Mar. 1697/8 Weymouth MA, s/o Zachariah & Mary (Benson) Gurney. He m. 10 June 1718 Mary Perkins of Hingham MA, b. 27 Mar. 1700, Boston MA, d/o Thomas & Remember (Woodman) Perkins who lived near the Hingham/Weymouth line. (Weymouth VR; Boston Births 1700-1800; "Isaac Allerton of the Mayflower & his Desc. for 4 Generations", R.S. Wakefield, p. 34)

He may have come from Weymouth to Abington MA as early as 1713 according to Cyrus Nash, & perhaps since he was 15, lived with his uncle Benjamin-3 or perhaps his whole family came & occupied the John Gurney-3 house near the Little Comfort Mill. He definitely was in Abington by 23 May 1719 when for £50 he bought from his cousin Richard-4, his interest in the homestead of John Gurney, Richard's deceased father. It consisted of 3 parcels of land containing about 95 acres & included the homestead near the Porter sawmill, a lot at Bear Meadow, and an 80 acre lot where he built his house. (Later it would appear that what he bought was 1/2 of the 95 acres.) (Plym. Co. Deed 14:215) He was a weaver & yeoman.

His house in Abington was located on "Back St.", now Plymouth St., Whitman MA. A few years later his brothers Nathan & Zachariah came to Abington & bought out the other heirs of John Gurney. Each family in succession seemed to have used the house near the mill. From these 3 brothers the Gurneys of Old Abington are descended.

On 20 Jan. 1720/1 Joseph & Nathan Gurney were 2 of 6 men who bought land from Elisha Lincoln & erected a dam & saw mill, the second in town. Joseph built 1/8 & Nathan built 1/16. (Plym. Reg. 39:92) The mill operated for some years but on 21 June 1748 it either had been torn down or destroyed by fire as Joseph sold his share to Isaac Hobart, who also acquired the other shares & there was no mill standing. (Plym. Reg. 39:262)

About 1740 the Provincial currency was unstable & Joseph was among some 860 prominent persons in the Boston area involved in a land bank scheme which issued notes or bills of credit on land security. Strong measures taken by Gov. Belcher to put down this currency versus the bank & its friends to sustain it, were leading the people to disturbances of public peace. There was an inquiry & Joseph & others were arrested in 1741, brought before the Governor & Council, & probably acquited. Anna Gurney noted that about 1741, a Boston newspaper published an item stating that Joseph called Col. Aaron Hobart "a confounded puppy" (a silly, conceited or insolent young man) because of the land bank affair. Hobart, one of Abington's leading citizens, had talked his neighbors into accepting paper money, secured by deeds to land, but when the Colonel discovered the whole scheme was to be outlawed in 1741, he quietly disposed of his bills, & let his neighbors, including Joseph, take the loss. Hobart threatened to sue him for slander. It was the Colonel's son, Benjamin who retaliated by ignoring the Gurneys as early settlers when he wrote "History of Abington" in 1866.

Cyrus Nash wrote that Joseph was killed about 1770-1772 while cutting down a dry topped popple tree. (D-LX:5) Joseph had been partially deranged for some years before his death & frequently took his axe into the woods to fell trees. He kept 5 pebbles with him which were worn smooth by turning them from one hand to the other.

NATHAN GURNEY-4 (Zachariah-3, Richard-2) was b. 15 Oct. 1702 Weymouth, Norfolk Co. MA, s/o Zachariah & Mary (Benson) Gurney. (Weymouth VR) Hobart's "History of Abington" indicates that he was the son of John, but that is incorrect. The error probably arose from confused wording on some transactions regarding the estate of John Gurney-3 of Little Comfort. However, Weymouth Vital Records, Cyrus Nash (G-III:87, G-IV:8), & the Anna Gurney papers conclusively prove that Nathan was the son of Zachariah Gurney.

He moved from Weymouth to Abington, Plymouth Co. MA & apparently the church called Nathan to acknowledge the sin of fornication, subsequently he & Sarah Harden were m. 12 May 1725 in Abington & daughter Martha was born not quite 3 months later. Sarah was b. 9 Apr. 1707 in Abington, d/o John and Mary (Littlefield) Harden, & sister of Jane Harden. (Abington VR)

On 20 Jan. 1720 he & his brother Joseph were 2 of 6 men who bought land in Abington, agreed in 1730 to build a saw mill and dam, & sold it in 1748. (Plym. Deeds 39:92, 31:194, 39:262, 38:223) On 14 Feb. 1727 he bought for £ 25 from his cousin David Gurney of Easton MA, the 1/6 part of the land or inheritance formerly belonging to David's deceased father, John-3 Gurney of Little Comfort. (Plym. Deed 37:85) He may possibly have bought an additional 1/6 share from his cousin John Gurney of CT. On 25 June 1733 he purchased for £ 428 a tract of about 107 acres from John Stowell on which he eventually settled, the tract contained part woodland, part swamp, and part meadow. (Plym. Deed 52:9O). This farm adjoined that of his brother Joseph, near Plymouth St., now Whitman MA. He was called a housewright in the deed. It was from Nathan and his brothers, Zachariah & Joseph that the Gurneys of Old Abington and Bridgewater descend.

He died 17 Apr. 1786 and Sarah died 1788, both in Abington MA. (Abington VR)

He was a soldier in Capt. Isaac Johnson's Co. during King Philip's War, probably no more than 16 or 17 years old. On July 1675 his uncle, John Gurney-2 of Weymouth & Mendon MA was one of those who was slain by the Indians at Mendon. Upon news of the attack, Capt. Johnson was sent out with a company of 75 to relieve the town. On 24 July 1675 Zechariah was recorded in Capt. Johnson's Co. & received £ 02.14.00, probably for his services at Mendon. Also listed in Capt. Johnson's Co. was a Peter Gurney of Weymouth, probably his brother, the roll made at Dedham 10 Dec. 1675. (NEHGR 39:77)

Zechariah lived in Weymouth & whether he ever lived in Abington MA is uncertain, but all of his children except Jacob moved to Abington. About 1700 he owned property on Front St., Weymouth which afterwards was owned by his son Jacob. His estate was over 200 acres. (Hist. of Weymouth)

He d. 27 Oct. 1732 Weymouth. (Weymouth VR) His widow Mary lived her remaining years in Abington with her daughter, Mary Pratt in a house where the New England Art Factory stood in North Abington. Cyrus Nash wrote "Old Granny Gurney died in John Pratt's house in this town, aged about 100 years. She was mother to Mrs. Pratt, and to old Mr. Joseph & Nathan Gurney of this town and to Zachariah of North Bridgewater, & Jacob of Weymouth." (G-IV:8) She may have died about 1770-1774. (The Mary Gurney who d. 14 Feb. 1736, Weymouth VR was the unmarried sister of Zechariah, not his wife.)

He may have lived with a relative in Abington or lived there himself while courting Sarah.

His brothers Joseph and Nathan had settled in Abington and these three were the progenitors of the Old Abington & Bridgewater Gurneys. On 2 Feb. 1720/1 for £ 30 he bought from his cousins Mary Gurney Owen and Elizabeth Gurney Randall and their husbands, their 2/6 parts of land or inheritance which belonged their deceased father, John Gurney-3, the miller of Little Comfort. ## A NOTE ON THE GURNEY

"gurney, n. (probably from the name Gurney); West: a wheeled cot or stretcher." Webster's Third New International Dictionary, 1961. The label "West" is restrictive in the sense that the word "cayuse", which also bears the label "West", is restrictive. The first dictionary inclusion may have been Blakiston's New Gould Medical Dictionary, McGraw-Hill, 1956. It now appears in most dictionary publications, including Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Tenth Edition, 1993, but without the restrictive, "West".

The gurney is known to every hospital orderly, doctor, nurse, or ambulance driver, as the long-legged, four-wheeled cot used to transport recumbent patients within a hospital. For such a well-used word, the gurney has an interesting & somewhat obscure history.

Sir Galsworthy Gurney, an English inventor, was the first to devise & use the high pressure steam-jet in locomotion. In 1827 he propelled a steam-carriage into Hyde Park, London & was memorialized by the poet, Tom Hood:

Instead of journeys, people now
May go upon a Gurney,
Though with a load they may explode
& you will all be undone;
And find you're going to Heaven
Instead of up to London.

In 1829, Gurney built a steam carriage which broke all distance records of the time. He drove it 200 miles from London to Bath & back, at an average speed of 15 mph. By 1830, English steam carriages carried up to 14 passengers.

On 13 February 1883, the U.S. Patent Office granted to J. Theodore Gurney of Boston MA, a patent for an improved construction of running gear for horse-drawn vehicles. Gurney's three pages of claims outlined improved & scientific leafing of springs which, with their attaching devices, eliminated much of the rattling & jarring of the carriages then in use.

On 1 Feb. 1884, the horse-drawn Gurney Cab was illustrated in The Hub, a carriage maker's journal published in New York City. It must have been a success as it was pictured in later books on horse-drawn vehicles. Riding in a Gurney cab in New York in the early 1900's was considered a treat. Unlike the hansom cabs, the driver's seat was in front & the entrance at the rear. The smaller gurney seated four persons on two lengthwise benches; the frame was wood, with sheet-iron sides, roof, & floor, & had glassed windows. Maroon plush was the preferred upholstery.

An interesting story about the gurney cab comes from San Diego, California. Perhaps it was the lack of civic sophistication, but the stylish, two-wheeled hansom cab was never used commercially in San Diego. Instead, the gurney cab was used, perhaps because it was strictly "bargain" riding in the early 1890's.

The gurney was a small scale hack,--so small, that although two people could ride, it was more comfortable with one. Like the hack, it had four wheels but only one horse, & there was a strap which controlled the door latch & led from the single door at the rear up to the driver's seat. Once you were inside & the door locked, you stayed there until the driver collected his fare & let you out. It's chief appeal was to the thrifty. To hire a 2-horse hack cost almost 50 cents, but the gurney was only 25 cents. The more affluent hack operators could afford to have their hacks waiting for fares at the curb of the more fashionable hotels. This was beyond the economic reach of the Pacific Transfer & Gurney Cab Company, but from their office just 2 doors from the Santa Fe ticket office, they were happy to call you a gurney.

Something else which made the gurney popular with the thrifty citizens of San Diego, often called "cheapskates" by their northern neighbors of San Francisco, was that they would store your valise free, for a whole week! This irritated the hack operators no end, who talked about the unfair competition & of course, considered it utterly lacking in class.

In 1891 the city was still suffering from a collapse of the Great Boom. Beer replaced champagne & beans were common on every table. In such an atmosphere, you would have thought that the gurney had it made--but you must not forget San Diego's fierce western pride & the whispering campaign of the hackies.

"Ya know what? Last night I seen him come home in a gurney! A gurney, I'm tellin' ya--I seen it wit' me own eyes! An' him the cashier of a bank! Wot would his swell friends t'ink of dat?" Little by little, the mode of one's transportation became a status symbol. Papa might have to miss the last round of drinks, but it was worth something to ask the bartender to call him a hack & not a gurney. Prestige, my dear fellow! In only a year or so, the gurney became forgotten--the victim of a whispering campaign by San Diego hackmen.

San Francisco claims to have been the place to give origin to the word gurney as a hospital cot & therein lies another interesting bit of history. Prior to 1900, the Receiving Hospital service was under the supervision of the police department as was common in most of the larger cities of the U.S. at that time. Until the mid-1890's, police patrol wagons, open to the sky, & with length-wise benches, were used to transport arrestees & carry the sick & injured to the Receiving Hospital for the care of the police surgeon.

In 1892-1893 the Assistant City Physician of San Francisco, who also carried the title "Police Surgeon", appealed for a proper ambulance & ambulance service. The dirty, straw-lined police wagon of the open-dray type was a most unsanitary & jolting ride for the sick or injured.

Ever on the Hearstian alert to dramatize social malfunction, the San Francisco Examiner graphically illustrated the city's need. As the result of this furor, a horse-drawn ambulance was given to the city in 1894/95 by the socialite daughters of James Fair, builder of the Fairmont Hotel. Their contribution soon started development of the world's best emergency hospital service. In 1900 a new city charter transferred the Receiving Hospital, the recently established branch hospitals, & the ambulance service to the Board of Health. By 1903/04 drivers were being instructed in "first care" & in 1910/11 the first motor ambulance chugged off in response to calls. In 1912-1914 the San Francisco police patrol wagons were well-known as gurneys & the emergency hospital ambulances were also called gurneys. As the police patrol wagon developed from the open dray-type to the sided & roofed vehicle with its entrance at the rear, & as the ambulance gift of the Fair daughters answered calls, can we assume that these vehicles were nick-named after the rear-entrance gurney cab, then also a novelty?

In addition, there was in process another aspect which helped to transfer the gurney from the streets of San Francisco & Oakland to the silent corridors of hospitals. Traditionally, California law had prohibited the sale of liquor within a mile of any university. In the decades around 1900, the students of the Univ. of California sojourned to Oakland to paint the town red. A substantial part of the business of the Gurney Cab Co. was hauling UC students from the bright spots of Oakland back to Berkeley in the wee hours. Taking a gurney was cheap & affordable.

Pre-medical students at Berkeley had to complete their studies at the Affiliated Colleges (now the UC San Francisco Medical Center). Did they not associate the gurney of the San Francisco police patrol/ambulance & their familiar Oakland/Berkeley late-night gurney ride? How easily a patient was transferred from a gurney to the hospital & then to a waiting hospital wheeled stretcher/cot? Was not the word transferred also?

To reach currency of general use, a word is grounded in a variety of social processes. Neologisms don't just pop out of the mouths of individuals, but are rather evolved from a speaker/hearer association which reflects a succession of things or cavalcade of events. There is a metamorphosis of a word, if you will. A transformation, based on the principle of least effort, often leads to a metamorphic naming. Unconscious, but related factors frequently help to establish a word in solid usage. Can we not presume this process to be the origin of the word gurney, the name of the wheeled hospital stretcher? It is associated in the sound/sense with "journey" & Sir Galsworthy Gurney's steam carriage; with the carriage maker of Boston, J. Theodore Gurney & the Gurney Cab; & of course, is closely related to the history of the San Diego & San Francisco cabs; & the police patrol wagons & ambulances which served the early San Francisco hospitals.

ADDENDUM

pg. 5 Alfred Gurney, b. 25 Apr. 1849 according to Newburyport VR. If Alfred, toll gatherer, were age 19 at the time of his marriage to Louise Goodwin, 17 Sept. 1862, (Newburyport VR 5:19) it would make his birth year 1843. However, his death in 1916 at age 67 yr. 7 mo. again indicates a birth year of 1849. I suspect that the date of marriage was incorrectly reported & probably was closer to 1867-1868.
